EVENING SESSION.

The Convention was called to order at 6½ o'clock P M. T. R. Cornelius, of Washington, chairman of the committee on resolutions, reported the following which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved 1st, That we have an abiding confidence in the justice, intelligence and patriotism of the people of the United States, that they have the firmness and wisdom to preserve the Union their valor has sustained.

2d, As to the best plan of restoring the late revolted States to the exercise of all their functions in the Union and the legislation necessary in relation to freedmen, loyal men may honestly differ. We deprecate that obstinacy or pride of opinion, where or by whom displayed, that would give strength to the enemies of the Union through discord and division among its friends.

3d Holding the cardinal principle of our Government to be that the right of representation goes with taxation, we desire a full recognition of all civil and political privileges to the inhabitants of the States lately in revolt, as soon as compatible with the national safety and the protection of the loyal people in those States.

4th That the name of the man or of the party that would propose to this nation to repudiate its just pecuniary obligations, should be consigned to everlasting infamy.

5th The courage and devotion of those who have borne arms in the cause of the Union entitle them to our enduring gratitude and we pledge ourselves not to dishonor them by deserting the principles or surrendering the results for which they fought and bled.

6th That we will, as we ever have, support the State Governments in all their rights as the most competent administrators of their domestic concerns, and the surest bulwark against anti-republican tendencies, and preserve the General Government in its whole Constitutional vigor.

7th That the doctrine of nullification and secession held by the so-called Democratic party is antagonistic to the perpetuity of the Union and destructive of the peace, order and prosperity of the American people.

8th That we pledge ourselves to sustain the National Union, and to organize for action in carrying out and maintaining these principles, and in support of the candidates nominated by this Convention.

The following additional resolution was introduced and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we regard any measure which has for its object the taxing or sale of the mineral lands of the United States, that tends to retard or discourage the free use or occupancy and speedy development of the same, as detrimental to the best interests of the country, and inconsistent with sound national policy; and we respectfully call the attention of our present delegation in Congress to the subject of this resolution.

State Items

The rains have raised the streams in middle and southern Oregon so that the stages have been obliged to stop in many places. The telegraph reports passengers as lying by at Oakland, Roseburg, Canyonville, and other points, where the storm happened to overtake them.

An enterprising hotel keeper, anticipating a rush of travel to Yaquina this spring, has fitted up a house in the mountains between Corvallis and the Bay, for the accommodation of both "man and beast."

Wm Sanborn, the young man who was stabbed about ten days since at Salem by Nelson Haaxhurst, died from the effects of the wound last Friday.

We had the pleasure, Saturday evening, of visiting a very pleasant entertainment at Oregon City given by the young gentlemen and ladies of the Oregon City Lodge of Good Templars. The performance, which was for the benefit of the Lodge, consisted of tableaux, charades, recitations, songs and petite comedies, and was rendered very much to the credit of all concerned. We did not learn the amount of receipts, but it must have been quite considerable, as the room, a commodious one, was filled to overflowing.

The Treasury of Jackson county has in it $1,585 71, coin and currency, belonging to the irreducible school fund. The treasurer advertises it to be loaned.

The delegates to the Democratic State Convention, to be held on the 5th inst., are already arriving in this city.

Rev. J. James, of the M. E. Church, assigned to labor at Corvallis, arrived with his family at that place, last week.

Washington Territory Items

Timothy Martin, tried in the District Court at Vancouver, last week, on the charge of [illegible] larceny, was found guilty and sentenced to one year in the Penitentiary.

The editor of the Register having visited the newly discovered quartz mines back of Vancouver, publishes the following information concerning them. The number of ledges thus far discovered is three or four. The one nearest the foot of the mountain, which has been named "Columbia Lodge," where it crosses a ravine is, perhaps, fifty feet in width, and can be traced in an easterly direction for half or three-fourths of a mile, though eastwardly it soon goes under the surface of the ridge. The rock from this ledge is very rich and of a most singular appearance, though giving many indications of being gold-bearing.

Next above that, and probably forty or fifty rods distant, another ledge crosses the ravine, running parallel to the first, seven or eight feet in width, of a grayish color, and filled with particles of quartz, and giving a very favorable prospect for gold. Three or four rods up the ravine another and wider ledge crosses, of a somewhat more bluish color, with about the same quartz indications as the other. Some fifteen or twenty rods up the ravine another broad ledge crosses it, differing somewhat in color from any of the others. Some specimens from this ledge have been tried and clearly disclose gold.

Some of the rock from Columbia Ledge has been tried both by assay and crushing and amalgamation. The assay was returned at some $22 to the ton, the crushed as $18 60. Whether these tests are reliable, or not we cannot certainly tell. They are certainly sufficiently favorable to justify a thorough prospecting.

A private letter has been received from Hon. A. A. Denny stating that he has introduced a bill in Congress to change the [illegible] of the Territorial Legislature from annual to biennial [illegible], with double the present per diem pay of members; also, a bill appropriating $20,000 for the improvement of the mail road from Monticello to Skookum Chuck.

KLAMATH VALLEY.—Mr. Pengra, in his report of surveys of the Oregon Central Military Road, thus describes the scenery around Fort Klamath:

The Valley in which this post is situated is a lovely one to look upon from the surrounding mountains. The scenery here presents a beauty and grandeur which may be dreamed of, but seldom seen in a lifetime. Along its western and northern sides the Cascade mountains, whose towering peaks bid defiance to the battling elements, present their hundred varied forms.

On the east is a large ridge, heavily timbered with yellow pine, with a rocky wall at its base from one to three hundred feet in height. To the south is Klamath Lake, eight miles broad and twenty five or thirty long. Snow is seen in large fields on the mountain sides.

Away to the south, in the dim distance, is the white form of Shasta Peak. A little nearer, and farther around to the west, is Mount Pitt. At the foot of the mountain ridges large springs of pure water burst forth, which form broad and deep rivers at their very heads. Here, then, are the "gushing spring," "placid lake," "gentle brook," "the deep river," "snows of winter," "summer's verdure," "high walls," "towering mountains," "green forests," and the "lovely vale," of which poets have sung and [illegible] become entranced, all seen at one view.

COTTON MANUFACTORIES IN NEW ENGLAND.—There are nine establishments in Massachusetts for the manufacture of spool cotton, three in Bristol county, four in Essex, and one each in Hampden and Plymouth. The value of stock used and of spool cotton made, capital invested and hands employed for the year ending on the 1st of May, 1864, was as follows: Stock used, $864,538; value of cotton made, $1,396,621; capital invested, $900,599; hands employed, 867. There are in operation in Windham and New London counties, Connecticut, fifty-seven cotton mills, having a capacity of 426,361 spindles and 8,094 looms. During the last year the mills manufactured into goods 20,485,540 pounds of raw cotton. There are now in the course of erection six new mills that are to have a capacity of 112,468 spindles and 2,872 looms.

Curious and interesting phenomena in the Pennsylvania oil regions are thus reported by a correspondent of the Meadville Republican:

Imagine a space of perhaps forty feet square sending up a solid sheet of flame nearly sixty feet in height. It lights up the country for miles around, so that one can see to read a newspaper the distance of four or five miles. The heat of the fire has started vegetation to growing, and grass can be found there as green as that found in summer time. The well is owned by parties in Rochester, N. Y., and was struck some four weeks ago. It commenced flowing oil and water with a very strong force of gas, and the owners were confident they had a good well, but two weeks ago last night, the men going to supper, the well took fire—it is supposed from the engine—and has been burning ever since.

MASSACHUSETTS AND UNITED STATES BONDS.—The Chicago Republican has the following:

Some of our old fogy cotemporaries are exercised over the fact that the bonds of Massachusetts are worth thirty per cent more than those of the United States. The reason is that in Massachusetts radical politics prevail, conservatism having been successfully pitched overboard long ago. There all voters must be able to read and write, and the ballot of a black possessing the requisite degree of intelligence and education, counts for just as much as the ballot of a white man. If politics in the United States at large had reached the same healthy condition as in Massachusetts, the bonds of the Government would be worth in the market a great deal more than their present prices.

What they will Deny.

The Democracy habitually deny the correctness of Union policies, Union resolutions and Union doctrines generally. That is the only stock in trade they have, and to get on the opposite side of any Union issue is their platform. In accordance with that long and coshistently pursued habit, we shall now hear them deny that the people of the United States "have the firmness and wisdom to preserve the Union their valor has sustained," the Union Convention having assumed that they are thus firm and wise. Union people during the war, thought they could sustain the Government and could thrash the rebels. Democrats, from habit, thought they couldn't do either. The latter won't think of such a thing as admitting the truth of our Union resolution, because it would be heresy to the idea upon which the Southern Confederacy was projected.

They will, we suppose, from the force of habit and to keep on their platform, deny that "the right of representation goes with taxation, the Union party of Oregon having declared that as its belief.

They will, of course, deny that the lately revolted States should be restored to all their political and civil privileges as soon as compatible with the national safety. They have, in advance denied it, in those terms, by demanding such restoration instantly, without any regard to its bearing upon national safety. National safety is not a Democratic consideration.

The Union party having declared most emphatically against repudiation of the national debt, or other just pecuniary obligation, the Democracy will, we suppose, at once declare in favor of it. That will be, however, consistent with the most of their past and present positions on national finance.

They will deny that any gratitude is due to the soldiers who by courage and devotion preserved the Union. Until very recently, the Democratic names for a soldier were, "hireling," "minion," &c.

They will now feel constrained to deny that they are under any obligation to support the State governments. They never did think it policy to support and strengthen any but those States which finally tried to destroy the General Government.

They will deny that the doctrine of nullification and secession is antagonistic to the perpetuity of the Union, or that it is destructive of the peace, order and prosperity of the people. They did, in practice, deny it in '60, and from that time until the rebellion closed, by siding and sympathising with and encouraging the nullifiers and secessionists. They still adhere to the right of revolution as practised by rebels.

On all these points the Union men will cheerfully agree to take issue with them and to "fight it out on that line."

Senator Foot.—We have the announcement this morning of the death of Senator Foot of Vermont. The event was not unexpected, but still it must produce profound feeling in the minds of all who remember his important services in the cause of his country and of universal freedom. It is but a few months since Jacob Collamer, his colleague of many years, and a man worthy to be [illegible] among the best and noblest of our countrymen, passed away. In the death of these two men the nation has suffered a loss which every one who appreciates their eminent services must feel and share. Solomon Foot was born in Cornwall, Addison County, Vermont, Nov. 19th, 1802. He was graduated at Middlebury College in 1826, and from that time till 1831 was tutor in the University of Vermont. He was admitted to the bar in 1831, and settled at Rutland, where he resided until his death. He represented the town of Rutland in the Vermont Legislature for several terms, beginning in 1836 and continuing till 1847. In 1835 he attended the constitutional convention of his State and made a powerful speech in favor of a [illegible] Senate as a co-ordinate branch of the Legislature. Through his influence the measure was adopted. In 1842, and again in 1844, he served as a Representative in Congress. In 1850, and again in 1856, and for the third time in 1862 he was elected to the United States Senate. His great speeches on the Kansas question are remembered as among the most able of the time. Senator Foot was for a time President of a railroad company in Georgia, but in 1856 he resigned his post. He had been in feeble health for some time before his death.

Untombed Demi-Gods.—A Southern poet has found a new name for young Southern chivalry. Hear him:

> "You may talk of peace with the Yankee,
> For Heaven hath mercy and rods;
> But not where slumbers our young chivalry,
> The untomb'd demi-gods!"

If the demi-gods are untombed for want of money to bury them, a small contribution would willingly be furnished to put them under ground This chivalrous Southerner who surveys the situation from the heights of Parnassus, should appeal to Jove and the other gods to give those untombed little great ones a decent sepulture. The dwellers on Olympus should be ashamed to let their offspring lie about unconfined and unknown. But these untombed demi-gods slumber not alone The aged representative of the chivalry, our great Joseph Lane, is supposed to have a dead body lying about somewhere at least we infer so from the fact that while in political life he told us that whoever went South to fight the chivalry would have to walk over his inanimate corpus Now we know somebody did go South to fight, and as we have never heard of the burial of the dead body aforementioned, the inference is that it is lying with those of the untombed demi-gods of the South of whom the poet so proudly sings Oregon can appreciate the "fine frenzy"—the rolling raptures of the poet who sings of the untombed demi-gods.

A Hard Job.—Accounts from the South says the S F Examiner, represent that there are a number of lazy worthless negroes who refuse to work

It will be difficult for the Examiner, Bishop Hopkins "or any other man" to remedy this evil, and we hope they will not undertake it. Before the war it kept the whites busy to keep the blacks busy, and now both whites and blacks are seemingly out of business They are doubtless a very lazy, worthless set, black and white, but the best thing the "dominant race" can do is to go to work themselves and leave off trying to make the negroes do it for them

An Administration paper—called the Herald—has been started in Portland —Victoria Chronicle.

That is a very cruel joke on the Administration.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 29.

Stockton ousted from the Senate—The Veto Message.

[illegible] by a vote of 22 [illegible] Stockton [illegible] The President's veto message was [illegible] having been previously circulated [illegible] among the Senators [illegible] The bill [illegible] the several States the right [illegible] this bill invades that [illegible] Congress [illegible] the power to transfer to Federal tribunals certain classes of [illegible] in this bill [illegible] the power of Congress [illegible] and against the white [illegible] It is an assumption of power by the General Government which if acquiesced in must destroy our Federal system of limited powers and break down the barriers which preserve the rights of the States. It is another step or rather stride towards centralization. The tendency of the bill must be to resuscitate the spirit of rebellion and to arrest the progress of those influences which are more closely drawing around the States the bonds of the Union and peace. Entertaining these sentiments, it only remains for me to say that I will cheerfully co-operate with Congress in any measure that may be necessary for the preservation of the civil rights of the freedmen as those of all other classes of persons throughout the United States, by judicial process to equal and impartial laws, in conformity with the provisions of the Federal Constitution. I now return the bill to the Senate, and request that in considering the bills and joint resolutions (forty-two in number) which have been thus far submitted for my approval, I am compelled to withhold my assent from a second measure that has received the sanction of both houses of Congress." The Senate now consists of forty-nine members of whom thirty one are counted in favor of passing the bill over the veto and 15 against three—Dixon, Foote and Wright absent—sick. An attempt will be made to-day, with every prospect of success.

Western Military Department.

The Secretary of War laid before Congress an important report of General Pope's on the condition and necessities of his Military Department. He says the protection of travelers crossing the plains is a question of absorbing interest, and argues to show the necessity for the speedy completion of the Pacific Railroad which will do more than any other single cause to overcome and prevent Indian difficulties. A sufficient number of troops should be stationed along the routes to protect emigration and secure surveying and working parties of the Railroad, and also, when necessary, to render aid in its construction. It would be false economy to suffer the construction of the roads to be delayed or embarrassed for want of a few troops and the expense they would occasion. General Pope then enters into a long discussion of the various routes to Montana via Colorado, New Mexico, etc and proposes that the Government should restrict itself to one route for furthering that route. He says the present Indian management is growing worse daily, and submits an estimate of the number of troops that will be required to preserve order. He specifies fifty-seven points at each of which there should be a small garrison. The aggregate is twelve regiments of infantry of six thousand efficient men and six regiments of cavalry, of three thousand efficient men, and that one third more of each arm of the service should be added for contingencies The resignation of Gen. [illegible] W Palmer commanding the Department of Kentucky is accepted Gen Jeff C Davis succeeds to the command of the Department

A Rebel's Testimony.

The Reconstruction committee have reported the testimony concerning Virginia and North and South Carolina, which includes the testimony of Gen Robert E Lee. He represents nothing like a sentiment of hostility to the U. S Government existing in Virginia; that there are no collisions or conspiracies with that end in view; that the people of the South, are disappointed by the result of the war; that they yield submissively, and are only working now for their material interests and that the speediest means of reconciling the people to the Government, and making them its cordial supporters, is to extend to them equal political rights with the people of other States As to the negroes, he expressed the belief which he says he has always entertained, that the States would be much better without them, and he repudiates the idea that cruelties were purposely inflicted on Federal prisoners of war

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, March 28th.—In the House, Wilson from Iowa, from the Judiciary committee, reported a bill to facilitate the settlement of the accounts of officers of the Freedmen's Bureau with the Treasury, which was considered and passed

Morill, of Vermont, from the committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill postponing for two months the levying and collection of the annual tax upon schedules, so that the committee may have time to report a new bill which shall take effect the present year The bill was passed.

Raymond, of New York, offered a resolution, which was adopted, providing that the committee on Judiciary enquire into the expediency of amending the rules, prescribing the duties of the Clerk of the House of Representatives, in preparing for the organization of the House, so as to provide that no member whose name may be called by the Clerk, shall participate in the election of Speaker, or any other business, until he shall first have taken the oath prescribed by the Constitution and United States laws

The Bankrupt bill was defeated.

Exciting Canvass in Connecticut.

CHICAGO, March 29th.—The situation in Connecticut is exciting, and there is tall lying somewhere about President Johnson's relation to the canvass. Messrs Owen and Griswold, who accompanied Gen. Hawley to the White House, published a card stating that the President said he desired the success of the Union party, and that whatever differences of opinion he has with the members of that party, he expects to fight it out within the lines of that political organization. Burr, editor of the Hartford Times and Ingersol of New Haven, who called on the President next day with English, published a card stating that Johnson said he meant by the Union party, that party which supported his restoration policy. Ingersol, in a speech at New Haven said:—"We read to the President the statement of Owen and Griswold, whereupon he said, 'When I said the Union party, I did not mean the men who are trying to break up the Union party, but men who stayed by me. I believe the maintenance of the Union depends on the policy which I have indicated in Congress. Those who sustain that policy are my friends those who oppose it, I certainly have no desire to see elected to any office. The party of Radicals is not the Union party.'" Ingersol further says:—"We handed the President the resignation of Postmaster Cleveland of Hartford, which he instantly endorsed as published"

The New York World of March 25th says President Johnson's manner of treating postmasters in Connecticut is very significant The Radical postmaster of Norwich tendered his resignation because he is Chairman of the Republican State Convention, and a supporter of Gen Hawley, and it is promptly accepted and so endorsed The Postmaster of Hartford also resigned, on the ground that he supports English; and his resignation is handed back to him The World's announcement that Postmaster, N. D. Sperry of New Haven would support English, the New Haven Post denies; but with the inference that Sperry is a friend of President Johnson's, and an admirer of his policy.

Ex-senator Jas. F. Back, Collector of the port of New Haven, says he called upon the President to tender his resignation if his support of Hawley required it, when the President answered him that the report that he (the President) required office holders to support English was false That instead of asking votes for English, he was opposed to his election.

The Hartford Press, edited by General Hawley, says if the President's opinion about the Union party, as expressed to Ingersol, is his true position, it will not shake the determination of the people of Connecticut, who know no other master but God

The New York Times commenting upon the whole situation, says the result is doubtful, but if not elected, Gen Hawley will owe his defeat to his own rash action in making issues not authorized by the Union party. The Radicals in Congress and the country do not need so costly an experiment to teach them that they have everything to lose and nothing to gain, by forcing extreme and unwarranted political issues upon the country, or by making war upon an Administration which they have placed in power

Death of Senator Foot.

WASHINGTON, March 28th.—Senator Foot of Vermont, Senator since 1851, died at four o'clock this morning The senate as a mark of respect, adjourned immediately after the reading of the journal

The Press on the last Veto.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The following is the tone of the morning papers on the veto

The Herald says that the veto exhibits this bill as the most flagrant device for overturning the reserved rights of the States in their legislative and judicial tribunals ever attempted in Congress. It appears to be a thousand times more objectionable than the Freedmen's bill, and the veto marks the impassible barrier between the President and the ruling radicals of Congress Henceforth, there can be no party inducements of Congress coupled with professions of adherence to the Administration

The Tribune says Let us not think that [illegible] the bill he might have phrased differently, but he has shown [illegible] that the particular bill but any measure which by Congress shall attempt to protect the blacks against white abuse must encounter this determined [illegible] opposition

The Times says the logic of the veto is so keen and searching as is characteristic that we are of the opinion that the strongest advocates of the measure will see how very important it is that the veto power should exist

The World says the veto is conclusive that the conflict between the President and Congress admits of no compromise

Foreign News.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The steamer China arrived this evening with Liverpool dates March 17th. In the House of Lords March 16th, Earl Grey, after a long speech on the Irish disturbances, moved that the House go into Committee on the state of Ireland. Debate ensued. Russell deprecating the attempt to carry out the violent remedies proposed by Lord Grey, as it would produce an important agitation in the country. He referred to a gradual and well considered reform. Grey's motion was negatived without a division

In the House of Commons Layard said promises had been received from Spain, Chile and Peru, that vessels now building in England should not leave until the pending difficulties should be settled. The Corps Legislatif was debating a paragraph in the address relative to international liberties. Jules Favre spoke in support. Olivier, [illegible] of the opposition. During his speech he was called to order by the President for attacking the constitution. Olivier [illegible] [illegible] which however, was finally rejected by a vote of 236 to 72.

A telegram says the convention with Mexico in reference to recruiting in Austria for the Imperial corps for a return in Mexico was signed on the 15th by Count Mensdorff and the Mexican Minister

The London journals say The King of Prussia has over ruled Von Bismarck. An arrangement may yet be effected by which Austria may consent to the annexation of Schleswig Holstein to Prussia. It is said to be in contemplation to give back Schleswig to Denmark, as a concession to the public.

The Cork Examiner says it has excellent reasons for knowing that the report current for last five days that Stephens had actually left Ireland is correct and that Stephens [illegible] the members of the Brotherhood in Ireland [illegible] their political pursuits than they had been doing for some time

BY STATE TELEGRAPH

DR. CHAS. H. TOZER'S PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE,

N. E. Cor. Jackson and Kearney Sts.,

SAN FRANCISCO.

THE GREAT ERADICATOR OF SPECIAL COMPLAINTS, FORMERLY OF LOCKE HOSPITAL, LONDON, EIGHT YEARS IN SACRAMENTO, AND THE LAST THREE YEARS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

DR. TOZER'S

Experience is of forty years standing, and during that time has met with unparalleled success in the treatment of all those diseases generally known as Venereal or Chronic.

It is impossible here to mention all the diseases with which he is familiar, same, perhaps, will not be out of place. The most formidable, the most destructive to mankind is Self-Abuse. The brain being the seat of the disease the whole system suffers in consequence I will here enumerate some of the symptoms, so that those afflicted may be able to form an opinion in regard to their complaints, and seek advice in time, thereby saving themselves a world of suffering: Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Pain in the Limbs and Back, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling of the Limbs, Headache, and an Aversion to Genial Society, especially that of Females. There are a great many more, but these are sufficient, and should you be suffering from any of them, call on DR TOZER, and he will cure you in a short time, without any interruption in your business or state your case by letter, and there will be no occasion for your calling at the office

Stricture of the Urethra.

Is another formidable enemy to health. Send for one of my circulars on that disease, and inform yourself of its terrible results. The worst cases cured in a few days.

Venereal Diseases

In all their various forms, either Primary, Secondary or Hereditary completely eradicated from the system Your constitution being restored to perfect health, there will be no danger of handing down to your children that terrible disease known as Scrofula.

Syphilitic Disease

As it presents itself on this coast, is of a more formidable character than that seen in the Atlantic States or Europe, arising from the fact of its being a compound of Spanish, Chinese and Sandwich Island disease. Those of you who have visited the two latter countries no doubt have seen the dreadful effects of it on both the native and foreign population It requires altogether different modes of treatment.

The Old Formulas

Of Ricord, Acton and Bostwick are of little account, except to dry up the disease on the surface, leaving the poison in the blood, which, sooner or later, will show itself in a secondary disease in an aggravated form. These facts I have learned by experience, and I think that I can say without boasting that I have seen more practice in these diseases than any other physician in California, dating as it does from 1849 It becomes you, therefore, to think well before you employ a physician.

Who is the proper one to consult—an old experienced one or one who has recently settled amongst you?

My Plan is Purely Vegetable,

Destroying the disease and purifying the blood, so that there is no danger of secondary symptoms.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia,

And diseases arising from the use of Mercury, such as pains in the shin bones, swelling of the different joints of the body, running sores, etc., etc. and impurities of the blood cured in a short time by the use of my VEGETABLE MIXTURES known only to myself.

Diseases Peculiar to Females,

Such as Retention, Painful Menstruation etc., etc., have been my study for a great number of years, and I can safely promise a perfect cure in a short time

Be not deterred from calling on Dr TOZER from delicacy or a fear of exposure, as the Doctor is known in whom you can trust, and all cases are treated with the utmost secrecy

My Female Pills

Are the best ever used in this climate for the Suppression of the Monthly Sickness. Every lady should have a box, in case of necessity Price, $5 Consultation at the office or by letter, FREE. All letters returned or destroyed. Office hours from 9 A M till 8 P M.

OUR MINES.—What is the country coming to? For two years past the [illegible] has been frequently propounded by persons on hearing of new and valuable discoveries of gold and silver quartz in the regions of Oregon, Washington and Idaho. In 1862 Washington Territory embraced all of that section now known as Idaho and [illegible], which was a howling wilderness only inhabited by savages. The placer discoveries at Oro Fino and at the Salmon, then Boise and Owyhee and finally throughout the section, and the thousands of quartz mines well represented by hardy miners all over the great coast of the [illegible] range of mountains, is without a parallel in the history of the world, and their discovery has ushered into existence the youngest but richest Territory in the United States, which promises the formation of numerous glorious States of the Union. In 1865 the standard of judging of the wealth of a region was measured by the richness of the [illegible] ledge, at Owyhee; but with the discovery of the Poorman every other ledge in this vastly extensive country was "discounted." Since the Poorman has been found, yielding so fabulously as it is known it does, a [illegible] has been exceeded by a discovery in Montana, and it was said to set the claims for wealth by Montana back, we have news of the discovery of quartz within ten miles of the Dalles, near home, which bids fair to rival the most valuable [illegible] in the whole upper country. We were shown a specimen of the rock on Saturday evening, which, if it be genuine, and exists in quantities as represented, would be willing to admit has enough in itself to more than pay off the national debt, within one year after the mine is [illegible] fully opened. The specimen was very rich, being covered on nearly three sides with gold, and on the fourth with a soft globule of material [illegible], that we were in doubt about the [illegible] of a ledge being found so valuable, and yet so little being said about it, but our informant states that the persons in the secret were not disposed to say very much about it at present. The appearance of the gold is very dark, and would indicate an alloy with copper. Where the discoverers are, or what may be the result of their labors, we think, we can [illegible] bright gleam in the future of the Dalles. Real Estate must be stimulated there by this last discovery, and in case the ledge is found to be well defined throughout, will be one of the most lasting benefits that could be conferred on the State of Oregon. Well may we ask, on seeing such indications as these—what is the country coming to?"—a question beyond the [illegible] of the most industrious geniuses who have plenty of time to "look up things" and solve curious problems.

[illegible] AFFAIR.—About three o'clock P. M. yesterday the attention of persons who were passing down [illegible] was directed to an apparent scuffle going on in the third story of one of our principal hotels, [illegible] man and a woman. The movements of the [illegible] for a few moments until quite a [illegible] collected on the opposite side of the street, and [illegible] felt that it was a row between a man and [illegible] fiend finally undertook to push the woman [illegible] window, and her agonizing cries riled [illegible] blood of the lookers on, but assistance was [illegible] until it became too late, for, with one shriek, [illegible] fell head-first to the awning or verandah [illegible] the signal for an attack on the perpetrator of [illegible] deed, who, when met by the rush at the head of [illegible] of being covered with shame, wore a [illegible] of countenance and modestly smiled to [illegible] that they were sold which proved to be the fact [illegible] a pale bolster, with a woman's dress upon [illegible] the floor of the verandah. It was a good joke [illegible] Day.

[illegible] COLUMBIA SILVER MINING COMPANY.—We briefly [illegible] to the fact on Thursday last that a number of our [illegible] were interested in a valuable mining region of [illegible] Columbia, known as the Shuswap. On last Saturday [illegible] of incorporation were filed, and the company [illegible] under the above name. The location is on the North [illegible] Creek, about sixty miles above Fort Shepard, and not more than twenty miles from the Columbia river. The capital of the British Columbia Silver Mining Company amounts to $500,000. Edwin Russell, Esq., of the [illegible] of British Columbia was chosen President under [illegible] on Saturday, and W. W. Page, Esq., Secretary. The following named gentlemen are the Directors: Col. J. S. Ruckel, Thomas J. Carter, Wm Davidson, E. W. Tracy and Edwin Russell. Mortimer Robbins, Esq., and Major L. L. Blake were elected by the directors as Superintendents, and will proceed at once to [illegible] comply with the provisions of the British Columbia [illegible] at which has conferred upon the Company [illegible] of lands for the furtherance of the object.

[illegible]—The Victoria Chronicle of late date says: "Mr. Wm. [illegible], of Johnson street, has received a letter from his [illegible], dated Fort Sheppard, 1st March. The writer speaks [illegible] of the prospects at Big Bend, [illegible] men are already on their way from below, the [illegible] larger than the Forty-nine was to be [illegible] Navigation on the Columbia was [illegible] above Fort Sheppard, and the [illegible] ready for a trip." Now, if all be true that is [illegible] by the Victoria press and chamber of commerce, [illegible] would be the use of building another steamer [illegible] river "larger than the Forty-Nine?" [illegible] rather singular, to say the least—and we [illegible] they would prefer to inquire: what is to be done with the boat we have? The five hundred people on their way to Big Bend by the Columbia river route will [illegible] the coming two months, before the [illegible] are now suffering on the [illegible] route [illegible] terrible rations to live on.

[illegible]—A new society has been organized in [illegible] "Society of St. Mecruline." The object, in [illegible] certain [illegible] and [illegible] reforms [illegible] to induce the ladies to avoid all modes of [illegible] that are prejudicial to health, and also such as [illegible] expense. The simplicity and cheapness [illegible] with real elegance are to be encouraged, [illegible] the use of expensive and gaudy ornaments and [illegible] so that the "lady" will be recognized [illegible] of her dress, and extravagance and [illegible] of vulgarity and pretension [illegible] who that understands feminine human nature [illegible] that such aims can be accomplished. What sort of a show would society have?

[illegible]—Among the new establishments started in the city the past year, is that of Mr. Walker, on Front street, between Jefferson and Columbia, for the manufacture of hats. Mr. Walker takes the fur of the [illegible] through with the regular process, making the very best quality of hats, of various styles. His place is quite a feature, and our citizens should call upon him. It will be an important department of the business [illegible] city in time. He started the enterprise under [illegible] discouragement, but the encouragement [illegible] met with is sufficient guarantee of his future [illegible]. The prejudice against home made goods cannot [illegible], and in this case, for want of [illegible], as there [illegible] inactive in his work.

THE RIVER.—Two years ago yesterday, the water in the Willamette was eight feet above low water mark at this city; one year ago it was eleven feet above low mark and yesterday it was thirteen feet and four inches above low water mark. The rains for the past week have been extraordinarily heavy. The Columbia raised five feet and two inches at [illegible] from Wednesday last to Saturday. The north end of Couch's wharf is all under water, and the lower deck of the O. S. N. Company's wharf is also [illegible].

[illegible] failed to appear [illegible] recently, for the purpose of [illegible] Rogers, a waiter at the [illegible] he alleged had robbed him when he left this city [illegible] Salt Springs, which [illegible] with the aid of a [illegible] and spy glass, [illegible] by the steamer Coeilis for his [illegible] river, to learn that the news had preceded [illegible] had accommodated him from the [illegible].

[illegible] We learn that Prof Sherman, of San Francisco, [illegible] giving a concert of vocal and instrumental [illegible] in this city, assisted by Prof Grobe, Prof [illegible], Strum, Hofer and others. There is an [illegible] in this city well calculated to give an entertainment of this class, and one that will be of some satisfaction to that portion of our citizens who appreciate true [illegible].

REAL ESTATE SALE.—The sales of real estate at auction [illegible] by Mr. Richardson, were as follows:

Lots 5 and 6, Block No	225	...	$1,100 00
" 3 and 4, " "	255	...	1,206 00
" 7 and 8, " "	229	...	505 00
" 1 and 2, " "	230	...	510 00
Lot 1, " "	159	...	500 00

THREATENING IN COUNCIL.—At the telegraph office in this city last evening a council of about ten old residents of Yreka was held. No outsiders were admitted, hence we are not advised as to the proceedings. F Adams, now of Canyon City, it is understood, presided at the meeting and our Ward was Secretary.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A small child, son of Mr. Charles [illegible], of the Star Bakery on Front street, yesterday, fell into a tub of water, and nearly strangled to death before being rescued. Dr. Chapman was called, and attended as speedily as possible, in time to restore the child to [illegible].

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—Deady, Justice.—There will be a special session of this Court this morning, at 10 o'clock to hear the case of Mansfield vs. the steamship Oregon—a suit in Admiralty—for the alleged non-delivery of freight.

STEAMSHIPS EN ROUTE.—We have advices by telegraph [illegible] that both the Montana, Capt. Kelly, of the Anchor (opposition) line, and the Pacific, of the Monopoly left San Francisco on Saturday at 2 o'clock P. M., for Portland, full freighted.

LOST.—Any person finding a gold pen and patent holder, lost on the streets of the city somewhere unknown will be thankfully rewarded by leaving the same at this office.

GEO. BADUS.—The Victoria Chronicle says George Badus was formerly a clerk on Yates street in that city, and that he went entirely into his bad habits after leaving there.

THE SIERRA NEVADA.—The steamship Sierra Nevada which left this city on Wednesday morning for San Francisco, was still in Baker's Bay on Friday night, unable to cross the bar.

COUNTY AFFAIRS.—The County Court, Judge Marquam presiding, convenes to-day at 10 o'clock A. M. The Commissioner's Court will meet on Wednesday morning April 4th, at 10 o'clock.

LETTER LIST.—The list of unclaimed letters remaining at the Post Office in this city, will be found in this paper to-day.

POPULATION.—Portland, Oregon, contains a population of 6,003 souls.—San Francisco Golden Era.

A slight mistake somewhere. That is the number of [illegible] the souls are not so many.

[illegible].—The propeller Hubbard, Capt Corno, left Co[illegible] river on Wednesday last for San Francisco.

GO SLOW, JAMES.—The little fellow who does the grumbling for the [illegible] seems to labor under the impression that the Democratic ticket is already elected, in Oregon. He is as certain of it as he once was that the Southern Confederacy was a "fixed fact." Now, Jimmy, you ought to remember how terribly disappointed you were when the bottom fell out of that rebel concern—how the catastrophe left you dangling in the air and what a ridiculous figure you were. You should have learned from the mishaps of yourself and your partisan friends during the rebellion how very uncertain it is to count chickens before they are hatched. You should have learned not to build your hopes so high as to break your precious neck when they tumble down with you. Remember Jimmy, what a fall you had when piggy turned tail on you and left you to "root hog or die." Forget not, Jimmy, your sad state when the free lunches were spread not for you any more. Let your memory revert, Jimmy, to the long catalogue of blasted hopes and the many worms you have found in your buds of promise and be warned not to build again too confidently on prospective gains. Let us entreat you Jimmy, not to expend your loose change too freely on the presumption that "Jas O'Meara, Esq." will be the next member of Congress from Oregon. Don't throw away your old clothes, Jimmy, thinking their "usefulness has become impaired" beyond reclaim—you may yet need them, James. We don't think it hardly necessary, Jimmy, for you to start yet for Washington unless you can afford to make it a private expedition. The Union men have not voted yet and they may, we rather think they will, elect some other individual.

GROSSLY FALSE.—We notice in the Herald of Saturday a statement to the effect that Dr Bowlby, of Washington county, was "sold out" at the Union State Convention by the delegations from the counties east of the mountains, their object being to secure the votes of Marion and Multnomah for Mr Woods for Governor. This is a grossly false statement. Woods is indebted for his nomination to no combination whatever. Nor did the delegations east of the mountains "sell out" Dr. Bowlby. The Doctor was the choice over all others on this side of the mountains of the delegates from the five counties on the other side. Dr Bowlby's real strength in the Convention did not appear in the ballot for Congressman. All the votes not thrown for Mallory, amounting to fifty nine, were undeniably his. He had no better nor truer friends than the delegates from Eastern Oregon, and it is maliciously false to say that they betrayed him or would have betrayed anybody. Than the Herald's fabricated story of "bargain and sale," nothing could be more untrue. The delegates whom the Herald stigmatizes are honorable men. No transaction of the kind which that paper speaks of came from that quarter, at least.

A CONSISTENT DEMOCRAT.—Most people will remember John Henry Smith of Yamhill county who went to San Francisco in 1862, on the strength of a letter received by him from a Dr Brown representing that Brown had $100 000 to be expended in Oregon for the purpose of carrying the State out of the Union, and that John Henry had been recommended to him by Jo Lane as a safe man to entrust with its expenditure. J Henry came back a poorer if not a wiser man, Dr Brown being either a myth or, if a real flesh and blood man, unwilling to trust J. Henry's Confederate guerrilla countenance. At all events, John H got no money and spent, by the trip, a considerable of his own and neighboring Democrats' who subscribed toward paying his expenses. Henry John came back and giving up the scheme of carrying Oregon out of the Union, made himself useful to the Confederates by voting the Democratic ticket. We see by the Lafayette Courier that John Henry Smith, Esq is now in the Democratic speech-making business. An effort to carry out Oregon with the rebellious States, voting the Democratic ticket and making Democratic speeches are not so unlike, in tenor as to affect a man's consistency in the least. John Henry has had no variableness or shadow of turning.

It takes 300,000 fat cattle to supply London one year.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

Victoria News

The Victoria papers to the 26th ult. contain the following items

The large and splendid building known as the Male Academy, was burned on Tuesday evening January 15 Prof Allison and Mrs Allison were at tea at the time, and had only time to save their baby Everything else—books, furniture, clothing, records apparatus—was consumed

Mr George Pars ns formerly editor of the North Pacific Times (at New Westminster) is now engaged in an editorial capacity on the San Francisco Examiner, a sound administration paper

It is reported that Messrs. Sproat & Co. have in contemplation to fit up the Thames and place her in the passenger trade between this port and San Francisco The more the merrier!

The submarine cable of the State Telegraph Company, intended for connecting Vancouver Island with the main land, has been taken out of the Clara Bell, and stowed in the hold of the barque Helios, for the trip north. It took nine days for the stevedores to stowe it in the Clara Bell, but the Company's employes stowed it in the Helios in three. It is twenty four miles in length, and weighs some sixty tons—Alta The Helios will be due at Victoria in about ten days

A U. S. Government detective from Washington City arrived on the Del Norte for the purpose of investigating the circumstances connected with what is supposed to be one of the most stupendous swindles ever perpetrated on any government It appears that in June last, when the California steamer Golden Rule, bound from New York for Aspinwall, was run ashore and wrecked near her place of destination, there were on board $2,000,000 in United States bonds of $1,000 each, these bonds were supposed to have been lost in an iron safe—at any rate, neither the bonds nor the safe were to be found after the steamer struck, and the government, having on record the numbers of the missing bonds, were at no loss by the disaster, but prudently (as it now seems) abstained from issuing bonds having numbers corresponding with the missing ones. Lately one or more of the missing bonds have been offered for sale in this city, and one has actually been paid into the Land Receiver's Office, at Olympia, in payment for government land, and the presumption now is that the bonds were stolen and that the steamer was run ashore for the purpose of permitting the robbery to be performed without fear of detection. We expect to hear of some startling developments in a few days.

The steamer Emily Harris arrived last evening Robbery and assassinations are becoming alarmingly frequent in the, until recently, happy and peaceful town of Nanaimo. On Thursday night the cabin of E. Smithurst, a miner, was robbed of a silver watch and a sum of money, and on the following night, as David Williams, a miner, was on his way home from work he was set upon by eight ruffians, who, after possessing themselves of everything valuable on his person, threw him from a bank into a ravine, where he lay, fearfully injured, until the following morning, when he was discovered and relieved It is thought that he will recover. The brig W. D. Rice was loaded with 290 tons of coal and sailed for San Francisco on Sunday.

LEECH RIVER.—A gentleman from Leech river on Saturday, called upon us yesterday. He says that Wood & Company have struck an old bed of the river in the bank opposite Bacon Bar, fifty six feet from the present stream, and picked up from the bed-rock some beautiful little nuggets—one weighing $6 and as round as a bullet. Williamson & Co., have got $4 to the hand per day in the bank, with every prospect of better pay as they go further in. About fifty miners will "fight it out on the line" of Leech river this year, and thoroughly test the diggings. The ditch is a failure for want of means. Two feet of snow lie on the river bank, but the weather being in a melting mood it will soon run off.

B. C. TRAVEL.—Barnard's Stages are advertised to leave Yale three times a week, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, for Cache Creek, until the completion of the wagon road, when they will connect with the steamer Marten at Savona's Ferry. The Cariboo stage leaves Yale every Monday.

LATER FROM BIG BEND.

The steamer Enterprise, with a few passengers and about $25,000 in gold dust, arrived from Fraser River on Saturday evening. The news from Big Bend is encouraging. Barnard's stages leave Yale daily for Suswap Lake. The road is in excellent order and is crowded with eager gold seekers on their way to the new Eldorado of British Columbia. Most encouraging Big Bend intelligence has been received in a private letter from the head of Shuswap Lake. The letter is from a driver of one of Smith & Ladner's teams, or dogs etc. He has been through to Columbia River three times during the winter, and on each occasion saw and conversed with miners at the mouth of French Creek. He writes: "All to whom I spoke told the same tale—the diggings are rich and lasting. In some of the claims the pay is found from the surface to the bedrock. On the bedrock the gold is coarser than in the upper dirt, where it is frequently fine—not flour gold, but scaley * * * * I saw one miner with $800, which he said he'd scraped together during the winter * * * I saw one of the partners of Ladner & Co. This company made a you gold last fall $15,000 apiece in two weeks after striking pay. He has been down to Colville and got back after a good deal of trouble from ice and snow. This Frenchman said he wanted one more month to work at his claim and then he'd go home to France * * Seymour (at the head of Shuswap Lake) is full of people. I hear the town is in the wrong place, new towns generally are * * * Smith & Ladner have kept people from starving this ... with their dogs and sleds Columbia River ... I went over it tw... * * It is drizzling here and I think by the tenth of next month (April) all the ice and snow will be gone.

... G. TALBOT.

The above extract is without date, but we take it to have been written about the 15th inst., which will give it nine days to get down, and is five days later than any previous intelligence received here.

STAND FIRM.—There are divisions in the Councils ... by the loyal people to secure diplomacy and statesmanship the fruits of victory their valor had won. Men in whose wisdom the nation reposed faith, and upon whose fidelity to ... and hostility to treason they staked all, now declare that "there is not at present a single traitor in the South." Union men, do you believe this? Is the man who offered a reward to procure the assassination of our beloved Lincoln purged of his damning guilt? Have the men who hunted down your sons and brothers with blood hounds repented of their crimes and become patriots? Are Belle Isle, Libby Prison and Andersonville forgotten? If so, admit the chief conspirators to your councils; heap honors upon the murderer Lee; nay more, drape your houses in habiliments of mourning for the demon Booth and go into weeds for the murderess Surratt; let the President call Breckinridge and Benjamin into his Cabinet; bid the bereaved widows and orphans of the loyal North dry their tears and rejoice, for the murderers of their husbands and fathers have repented and are forgiven; kill the fatted calf and make merry, for the prodigal has returned. Do all this, Union men, or suffer the penalty of being stigmatized as "radical." Be "conservative" by all means, and never stop to ask what it signifies. Be magnanimous and forgive your enemy, although you know that he seeks an opportunity to stab you in the back Be credulous, and believe that one man knows more than a thousand equally as wise as himself Union men of Oregon, when you do all this you can believe with Secretary Seward that there is "not at present a single traitor in the South" You can then feel safe in turning your back upon a loyal Congress and closing your ears to the united voices of the loyal North. It will then be your duty to send Nesmith another six years term to misrepresent you in the Senate, and to pass resolutions condemning Williams for his "radical" course. Will a single Union man in the State consent to do these things? Never! Let those who are true to principle stand firm Support those in authority while they adhere to the principles you hold dear. Support the President as long as he adheres to his determination to make treason odious, and Congress in all wise legislation, but believe no man infallible Angels once fell, and "man, clothed in a little brief authority," has often fallen In times like the present, let every man remember that his highest duty is his "individual responsibility to his God and his country" Union men, be vigilant stand firm, and suffer not yourselves to be deceived — Albany Journal

OVERLAND ROUTE FROM CALIFORNIA TO IDAHO TERRITORY, ETC —We are informed that a telegraphic dispatch has been received, says the Alta, from the East, stating that a stock company had been organized in New York and Baltimore, with a capital of $500,000 for the purpose of opening up a practicable mail and stage route from Chico, California, to the Boise Basin Idaho Territory, Captain John Mullan of Maryland, formerly of the United States Army, has been appointed President of the company If this energetic gentleman, whose indomitable will and perseverance are well known on the Pacific coast, should succeed as well in his "Chico project" as he did in the grand undertaking of constructing a wagon road from the head waters of the Columbia to those of the Missouri river (a distance of over 600 miles), he will receive the thanks of the people of the Pacific coast, Success to Capt. Mullan's project.

TOM CORWIN AS "PRINCIPAL" A characteristic anecdote of the late Tom Corwin was related to us the other day We don't remember to have heard it before It is in substance as follows

Some years ago when Durbin Ward was reading law in Mr Corwin's office in Lebanon, a collector entered and handed an account to Mr C The latter glanced at it a moment, then, without saying a word pulled out his pocket book, counted out two hundred dollars and handed the money to the collector who thanked Mr C and took his leave

Mr Corwin then picked up the slip of paper, and while tearing it into little pieces he remarked to Mr Ward that this was a security debt he had just paid that he had paid thousands of dollars security money quite enough to make himself and family comfortable for life, if he had it, and his denunciation of the practice of "going security" was really withering He wound up by saying that he would never go security again for anybody, and he warned Mr Ward not to commence the pernicious habit

Mr Corwin had not fairly set himself to his task he was engaged in at the moment he was interrupted when a distressed looking man entered his office His very appearance asked for sympathy, and did not ask in vain of Mr Corwin Taking a proffered seat the man stated that he had been very unfortunate of late, &c, and then remarked that he now had an opportunity to do something for himself and family provided he could find a friend to give him very slight assistance and he concluded by handing Mr. Corwin a small piece of paper, very like a note of hand, in appearance Mr Corwin hastily read it, and without speaking subscribed his name to the document, and handed it to the man, who was profuse of his thanks.

Mr. Corwin then resumed his writing, but the moment the man left the office, turned to Mr. Ward (whose astonishment at the sudden abandonment by Mr Corwin of the high position he had just taken, was too great to permit him to resume his studies) he remarked pleasantly, "Oh, you suppose I went bail, did you? Oh, no! I am not bail I'm principal on that note, for the scamp never intended to pay it."—Dayton Journal.
